Seek To Clear Controversy Holding Back Plan For JS-Skyline Blvd. Freeway

The California Highway Commission has announced that it will hold a public hearing May 26 in Daly City in an effort to clear up local controversy about a freeway route on State Sign Route 1 between Skyline Boulevard and Junipero Serra Boulevard.

Commissioners felt that the local controversy and the confusion in this case will continue until the hearing is held

The Commission adopted a route for this section of freeway April 27, 1960, after local government bodies waived a public hearing by the Commission. Since then, however, considerable local discussion and controversy has developed.

Only the section between Skyline Boulevard and Junipero Serra Boulevard will be considered at the May 26 hearing. Discussion will be limited to the adopted route and a recently studied alternate.

The hearing will start at 10 a.m. at the Daly City War Memorial Community Center.

Reaction at City Hall was mixed concerning the hearing.

Mayor Frank Pacelli said that he felt "well enough should be left alone," that the Highway Commission should stick by its prior decision (Route B) and not create further antagonisms between neighboring cities.

Councilman Robert St. Clair, who feels that alternate Route A-1-D (revised) is preferable to B because it would fall outside Daly City limits, said he thinks the hearing is a "good idea." He thinks that it might clear up confusion over the Highway Department's recent report that a route outside the city limits is now feasible from both an engineering and financial standpoint.

Councilman Michael De Bernardi, who favors Route B, said that he is definitely against any reopening of the issue, adding that he sees no need for the public hearing.

"We agreed to Route B," he said, "and I would like to see the situation stay just as it is."

Councilman Edward Dennis was in accord with St. Clair. He said that he would like to Play The Fiddle and Let It Burn!

Let's do it! It's much easier to be complacent about coming elections than it is to be watchful, and especially thoughtful, when it comes down to keeping a sharp eye on the possibilities involved should the electorate of San Mateo County allow certain changes to be made in their charter. These changes are not for the good of old John Q. Citizen (Q for Quixote) but are mainly for the benefit of the present and possibly future powers-that-be-in county government.

Why shouldn't the citizens elect their own county officials at election times rather than have some county-tax-paid official or officials reach in the hat, pull out a name and declare —this is the person whom I shall appoint to head certain phases of your county government.

Are we getting so weak and decrepit as citizens that we even listen to such unbridled effrontery to our own rights as voters to

Group Admits Problem Is Major One Within District At Two Levels

The problem of juvenile drinking within the Jefferson Union High School District was discussed at some length Monday night by the Board of Trustees.

The topic came up as the result of a letter from Fred Ruhland, secretary of the Broadmoor Property Owners Assn. Palmiro J. Nolli, president of the association, appeared at the meeting.

Nolli cited examples of girls at the seventh and eighth grade levels who had to be sent home because they were in an "intoxicated" state. He said the drinking problem was occurring on the secondary and elementary levels both.

The board acknowledged that it knew that juvenile drinking was a major problem within the district.

Dist. Supt. Edward Morgan called it a "social" problem, one that had to be solved by a joint effort of the school, community, church, and home. He placed emphasis on the home. He said he was cognizant that most of the drinking enticement came from the home, where youngsters have easy access to liquor.

"I am sure that many, many parents are not aware of the fact that, in some cases, youngsters are taking liquor out of the home.

Ruhland's letter, to which Morgan is preparing a reply, made particular reference to drinking incidents at athletic events and the Washington's birthday riot at Thornton Beach.

Morgan replied that the district has no jurisdiction on a student after school hours, and no control over the youngster if drinking comes from "private" drinking parties. He added that he had no reports that showed there were any students from the Jefferson District who participated in the riots.

"It's difficult to police football games. You have such a wide open area to cover. You can't just stop and search everyone," Morgan said, "but in the confines of the school and campus it's an entirely different story. Drinking is not being tolerated on campus!"

He said that all school activities are well supervised by faculty members, and that if there is the slightest bit of indication that a youngster has been or is drinking, he (or she) is immediately sent home.

SUDDEN FIRE SWEEPS OPTOMETRIST'S SHOP

Content Damage Is Estimated At $4000

A fire caused by exploding acetone bottles eventually gutted the office of a Daly City optometrist Tuesday morning after the occupant had tried vainly to quell the first flames himself.

The fire, which burned out the contents of the office at 6272 Mission street, was first reported at 10:01 a.m. Firemen initially were given a wrong address — 6572 — by a telephone operator, so were delayed in reaching the scene of the actual fire, according to Chief Elmer Kennedy.

Flames broke out while Optometrist Harold Garrett was heating certain materials over a small burner. The heat apparently caused bottles of acetone to explode and burst into flame. Glass from the shattered bottles struck Garrett in the forehead, cutting him.

Having no fire extinguisher on the premises, he ran next door in search of one. He was unsuccessful and by the time he returned to his shop, the flames were out of control.

Most damage was restricted to the contents of the office. Chief Kennedy estimated damage to the building to be approximately $1500 while that to the contents was about $4,000. Garrett is uninsured.

A fire detail was left at the scene the entire day to make certain that it did not spread through interior walls.

While fighting the blaze, Firemen Paul DeNatale seriously cut his arm and Chief Kennedy received a gash on the finger.

Garrett was attending to a client at the time the fire broke out, however, his name was not made known. He was uninjured.

CHIEF J. E. Kennedy of the Daly City Fire Department and two of his men battle the smoke and flames in the doorway of the optometry shop at 6272 Mission street which was gutted by fire Tuesday morning. Most damage, estimated at approximately $4,000, was done to the contents of the office, Chief Kennedy said. Building is owned by Arthur Haskins.

Council Holds Quiet Meeting Before Twelve

The City Council held one of its most quiet sessions in months Monday night as it worked its way quietly through mostly routine business before an approximate 12-person audience.

Among the matters handled were the following:

Transfer of city funds included $1,000 toward the city's 50th Anniversary celebration in October; $1400 from the park to the recreation fund for painting the entrance of the War Memorial Building and for repairs to the Peoria Clubhouse; $490 from the general fund to the building department for demolition of a building at 162 Los Olivos; $1500 to the park and recreation, library, general and government building funds for equipment based on recommendation of the Fire Department; and from the $3500 from the Fire Department equipment fund to its operating fund for reallocation of appropriation to carry out operating plans as a result of increased department activities.

In other business, two hearings on the proposed Karp and Ciardella annexations were held, no protests were received or heard, and the hearings were closed with a following vote to draw up all necessary resolutions.

Members Stalk Out On Trust Fund Meet

The tightly-knit Homeowners Trust Fund Study Group Monday night had unraveled a bit at the seams at its fourth emergency mass meeting held in Rollingwood School, as some fifteen of its members stalked out in apparently partisan protest to the reading of the two earlier "Stumbling Stones" letters which were so sharply critical of the City Council and Francis.

One of the purposes of the meeting of the study group—which in two weeks had succeeded in persuading State Sen. Dolwig to introduce S. B. 1015 for their protection—had been to air the dissension among the Rollingwood Round Robin Committee members stirred up by the letters of censure.

While the protesting group made no comment on a "Rolling Stone" letter of warm praise which had been addressed to Dolwig for his prompt reaction to the group's pleas, a number of them expressed deep disapproval of attacks on the City Council and Francis.

"We're here to get our mortgage payments down, not to criticize public officials" was the purport of their stand.

When the chairman pointed out that the criticism was not partisan, since Dolwig had not been included in it, some of the dissidents replied, "That's what it sounds like."

The City Council had been taken to task for delaying a promised letter to Dolwig for at least eight days beyond the time promised and for not sending at all a similar letter promised by March 8 to Francis. Assemblyman Francis, the chairman reported, had not responded by direct letter to three separate pieces of correspondence addressed to him by members of the committee — letters of March 2, March 7 and March 20 —and had not followed up on public announcement that he intended to submit a bill on the Homeowners' behalf.

County Board Agrees On Use Of DC Library

The County Board of Supervisors Tuesday in a meeting with members of the Daly City City Council in Redwood City voted to work out an agreement with this city whereby its library facilities can be used to serve Colma-Broadmoor residents, according to Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald said he expects the agreement to be in effect by June when the new fiscal budget goes into operation.

At present the area is being served by an inadequate branch of the County library.

Fitzgerald said that the county now feels that a more efficient, less expensive operation can be managed through the Daly City facilities.

There will be no monetary exchange, he added. He explained that the value of the additional books and reference services contributed by the County to the local library will more than offset any costs incurred by the city, and that the city will definitely have a vastly improved library facility as a result of the agreement.

Present for the meeting were the entire board, the assistant county manager and Mayor Frank Pacelli, City Manager Ed Frank and Councilmen Micheal DeBernardi, Edward Dennis and J. J. Verducci of Daly City.

Thief Caught After Stealing Market's Liquor

A Daly City Plumber was arrested Tuesday afternoon after he had earlier allegedly stolen several cases of liquor from the Lucca Market, 7370 Mission street, while posing as a store clerk.

Albert William Brandt, 27, of 598 Atlantic street, was apprehended by Officer Charles Munday of the Daly City Police Department following a brief chase begun by a store employee who spotted Brandt in a car near the scene of the crime.

Police thus far have recovered seven cases of liquor containing cognac, bourbon and gin. They suspect that there

SSF COUNCIL DELAY CALLAN PARK VOTE

A special adjourned meeting originally called for Monday night by the South San Francisco City Council for the purpose of casting a final vote on the Callan Park annexation was not held, according to City Manager Eugene Aiello.

He said that it had been called off because the final annexation agreement had not been completed in time.

He added that no disagreement exists between the parties concerned. He said the delay was caused only by the technical mechanics of working out the agreement which are taking longer than had been estimated.

Aiello said he thought the agreement would come up for the final vote at the next regu-

New Mission To Consolidate In Colma Plant

New Mission Heating and Plumbing Co. will consolidate its two separate operations in this area with the building of new $125,000 facilities in the 1100 block of Hillside boulevard, in Colma, according to Joseph Steffen, vice president.

At present the heating division is located at 3401 Mission street in San Francisco and the plumbing division is at corner of Westmoor and Morningside in Daly City.

Steffen said that plans call for an official groundbreaking before the week is out.

The new plant, which will be erected on an approximate quarter acre of land, will be basically a one-story building with a mezzanine. The heating division will be located on one side of the facility while the plumbing department will occupy the other half.

The structure will be built by Maurice L. Rosano Co. of 2955 San Bruno in San Francisco.

Completion is expected by August 1, Steffen said.

The company, which employs approximately 150 persons, has two other operations—a heating division in Menlo Park and another in San Rafael.

Municipal Band Will Perform Court Concert

The Daly City Municipal Band will present a two-hour concert Saturday in the Westlake Court area of the Westlake Shopping Center, from 1 to 3 p.m.

An "Easter Bunny" will stroll the court during the concert, passing out free easter eggs for the children.

The band, under the direction of George E. Brenner, will play 21 numbers, including:

"March Gridiron Heros," "The Flower Drum Song," "Musetti's Waltz Song," "The American Patrol," "The Sound of Music," "Wing Ding," "The Golden Tango," "In A Monastery Garden," "Can-Can," "March Mantastique," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and "Amparta Rocca."

Following an intermission, the band will play: "Waltz from Sleeping Beauty," "Intermezzo," "Selection from Gigi," "Children's March," "March Song of the Infantry," "Selection from the Music Man," "The Teddy Bears Picnic," "Hear That Dixieland Band," and "March from Commandante."

The concert will be free to the public.

Fitzgerald Is Member Of Hiway Group

County Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald has been appointed a member of a five man committee to study county highway needs and problems.

To be called the Greater Highways Committee of San Mateo County, the group will study all county highways and roads and seek a plan for county-wide cooperation in the creation of new roads.

The committee is being supported jointly by the county and its various cities on a two thirds-one third basis, other members of the group include: Mayor Wallace Benson of Belmont; William Morton, president of the San Mateo County Development Assn.; Kenneth Van Grundy, district manager of Pacific Gas and Electric; and Don Wilson, County Engineer.

Scant Opinion Available On Charter Issue

Official opinion concerning Propositions D-E-F-I, proposed amendments to the San Mateo County Charter which would make several county offices appointive rather than elective, proved to be embryonic at best in Daly City this week.

The consensus was that although most people are aware that the amendments will appear on the April 18 ballot, few know anything about the nature of their content.

Crux of the controversy is that should the four amendments be passed, the balance of power in the county would fall to the County Manager who is himself appointed by the County Board of Supervisors and not elected by the people.

City Manager Ed Frank said that he had read briefly some of the pros and cons in the issue but would decline to make any comment until he had had an opportunity to thoroughly study them.

Mayor Frank Pacelli said that he basically favors elective offices to appointive ones, however, he felt that he did not yet know enough about the particulars in this case to venture an opinion.

Councilman Edward Dennis said that he definitely is opposed to the transference of majority power from the electorate to appointed bodies.

Councilman Michael De Bernardi said that he wanted to read the proposed amendments in full before commenting on them.

Councilman Robert St. Clair said that he had been too busy worring about the freeway situation to know anything about the charter amendments.

Councilman J. J. Verducci declined to make any comment until he could further study the proposals.

In effect, the amendments would take seven elective offices—County Engineer, Coroner, Clerk, Engineer, Recorder, Tax Collector and Treasurer—and make them all appointive and subject to the powers of the County Manager.

They also would strip the District Attorney, an elected officer, of the bulk of his duties and authority, placing all the County legislative, judicial and executive powers in the hands of the Board of Supervisors and its appointees.

In addition, they would transfer certain appointive powers from the elective supervisors to the appointed County Manager.

Chamber Plans To Give Awards For Best Pupils

The Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce will present awards to five outstanding students from Jefferson Union High School, and five outstanding students from the Westmoor High School at a dinner on May 11.

The students and their parents, will be the quests of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce at an evening meeting.

The Chamber believes that high academic standards set by the students should be properly rewarded. These students will be chosen among the entire high school enrollment at Jefferson Union High School and Westmoor High School as outstanding in specific fields of learning.

The event will be held at the Steak Pit at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Reservations can be made with Chairman Elio A. Fontana, or Chamber Secretary Peter Markovich.

The committee in charge of this activity is Elio A. Fontana, Edward Morgan, Richard Foster, and Vince Murphy.

State Calls

see the hearing reopen the case in the hope that the freeway lateral might eventually be located outside Daly City.

Councilman J. J. Verducci said that at the first announcement of the hearing he was "quite concerned" because he felt it might mean a reopening of the entire controversial issue.

He added, however, that he has since talked with a highway official in Sacramento who has assured him that only Route A and B will be considered.

He said he feels that under these circumstances the "whole community will rally behind the way we last voted."

The city's final decision was made some time ago in favor of Route B, which falls within the city limits.

City Manager Ed Frank said he had no comment concerning either the hearing or the freeway.

California Taxpayers Get Choice This Year As To Form Used

Many California taxpayers have the choice this year of filing their State income tax returns on either the short, simplified, card-type Form 540A or on the long, four page Form 540, advises State Controller Alan Cranstan, Chairman of the Franchise Tax Board.

If your income is from wages, dividends, or interest and is less than $15.000 for 1960, you may make the filing of your return easier by using the short return, Form 540A.

The 1960 Form 540A has been revised to also permit California taxpayers to itemize their deductions. Last year the use of this short return was limited to taxpayers using the Optional Tax Table or taking the standard deduction.

Nonresident taxpayers, claiming the special tax status of Head of Household, or claiming a credit for income taxes paid to other states must continue to use the long form 540.

Forms and assistance may be obtained by calling at your nearest Franchise Tax Board office, 345 Larkin street, phone UN 1-7234.

Contrary to earlier rumor, there was no discussion of the annexation during Monday night's meeting of the Planning Commission, according to a clerk in the planner's office.

choose whom or to reject whom we wish to represent us in county, city, state or federal government? Does our franchise as an electorate mean so little that we might be hoodwinked into voting away our rights to select our officials just because we don't or won't take the time to delve into the dire possibilities of losing our franchise to elect said officials just on the words of a few individuals who think such changes are good?

It's about time the entire county electorate should take a strong, determined stand and overwhelmingly defeat any attempt, by charter amendment or any other means, to take away the right and power of the citizenry as a whole to select, elect or reject, all county, city, state or federal officials.

Not so long ago we could select, by ballot, our county manager. It is not so now—he is appointed by the Board of Supervisors and old Don Q. (Quixote) Public hasn't a thing to say about it. He's lost the right to select the head man in his county government—a few others do it for him.

Should we do the same thing with our other county officials—or should we wake up, get in the driver's seat and say: "No, I want to vote on the selection of every public official—and if that isn't possible now—let's make it that way soon!"

Pacifica Council To Take Second Look At Junk Hassle

The City Council of Pacifica has decided to take a second look at a situation in which one of its citizens is still apparently in violation of a zoning ordinance even though he feels he has complied with its restrictions.

The party in question is Lester Bootman, 479 Beaumont boulevard, who has been charged for several months with unlawful storage of "junk" in his residentially zoned land.

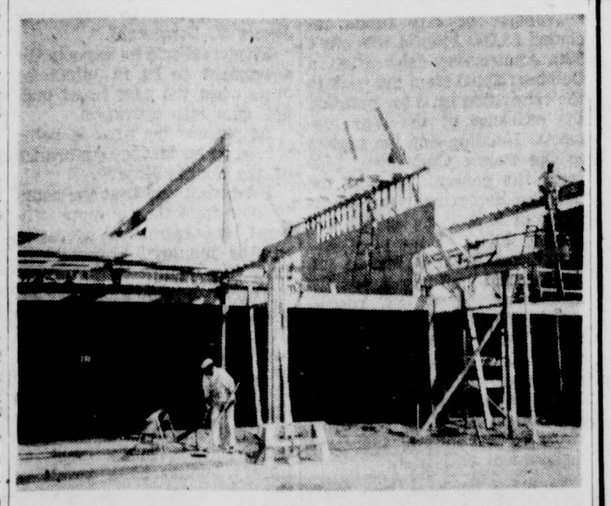
The city has tried for several months to get Bootman to clean up his premises. He now insists that he has removed much of the material and is not in violation of the city's ordinance.

However, a cursory investigation has revealed that the property is still littered with such ungainly items as miscellaneous building material, a loader, rolls of wire mesh, a laundry tray, an automobile differential, lumber and a house trailer.

The city has decided, according to City Manager Karl A. Baldwin, that it had best reexamine its ordinance and its original stipulations to Bootman before taking further legal action.

Numerous friends and neighbors of Bootman's were present at the council meeting last week to testify in behalf of his "good character" and to assure the council that his collection of odds and ends did not offend them in any way.

The council replied that the problem was in no way a reflection on Bootman's character, adding it simply has to enforce the city's ordinances.



ADDITIONAL space for First Western Bank and for Sears in the Westlake Shopping Center is under construction at the west boundary of center just off Lake Merced boulevard. This is another example of the continuous growth of the center and of Westlake in general.

Trust Fund Group To Reject Aid

The Rollingwood Round Robin Trust Fund Study Committee has rejected an offer of assistance, including legal aid, by an official of the Democratic party organization. The chairman revealed that a "stumbling stones" letter is being prepared in direct reply to the party leader.

"While we do not say that an attempt would be made to reap partisan political advantage from our misfortunes," the chairman stated, "We would not like to place any party in a position to do so. Since we have members in our group and on our committee of varying political allegiance and have repeatedly stated our non-partisan approach to a solution of our problem, we believe this offer of help from a political party spokesman is improper."

He added that it appeared this official may have misinterpreted the motives behind the two previous "stumbling stones" letters directed to Assemblymen Louis Francis and the San Bruno City Council, as some of the Republican members of the Study Group had done.

"Aside from the fact that our own City Council is made up of members of both political parties, the letters addressed to both them and Francis were simply critical of specific instances of official neglect. If the Democratic Party or the Republican Party wish to express support for us, they should endorse our legislative goals and encourage all citizens and elected officials to back Sen. Richard J. Dolwig's S. B. 1015."

might be more. The loot was discovered hidden in the basement of a house in the 400 block of Knowles. The recovered liquor is valued at about $350.

Brandt entered the store Tuesday morning, donned a smock and, posing as a clerk, found his way to the liquor storage facilities and removed the cases through the rear of store into a pickup truck.

It was later learned that both the pickup truck and a sedan he had used had been "borrowed" from Gateway Chevrolet's lot. Brandt took them but later returned them, Police said.

Bail of $1575 was posted Wednesday afternoon. Brandt will be arraigned in South San Francisco on April 6, Police said.

SKYLINE PLAZA CENTER SET TO OPEN BY END OF APRIL

Westlake's second shopping center, the million dollar Skyline Plaza, is scheduled to be opened the latter part of April.

The new shopping center, situated on a 10-acre site at the corner of Skyline Boulevard and Westmoor, is nearing competion. It will house 85,000 square feet of store space. Being built by Henry Doelger, it will ultimately have over 20 stores, surrounded by extensive parking areas.

Among the first of the stores to open will be the Skyline Plaza Market, owned by Vincent Novolo, who also operates the Westlake Food Center. It is a very large and modern market with every facility to serve the public.

At approximately the same time the market will be opening, a liquor store, "The Jug Shop," will also open its doors. It will be operated by Norman Murfee.

A bakery, with a complete line of breads, pastries, etc., will also be in operation.

Vern Berkowitz, of Vern's Ice Cream, in Westlake Shopping Center will open an ice cream store as well as a coffee shop with donut department.

Joe's nursery, under the direction of Joe Cherolis, is already open, located across the parking lot from the main buildings of Skyline Plaza.

Lawrence Sylvestri will operate a Shoe Repair Shop within the center.

There will be a drug store in Skyline Plaza, which is owned by Al Fambrini and Paul Gallette. It will be one of the center's larger stores. Additionally there will be a new hardware store, handling everything needed by the home owners of the surrounding areas.

Don's TV, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Don Goldman, will be among the stores opening in April. Mr. and Mrs. Goldman have a number of years' experience in this business.

A paint store, operated by Ray Forcina, will handle the Murphy line of paints, as well as Allied products.

There will be a beauty salon, owned by George Cordellos, who has been in this business for some years, with a shop on Mission street.

Jack Green Jr., will be the manager of the new barber shop, which is owned by Jack and Woody Green of the Westlake Barber Shops.

A cleaning service will open, owned by Al Bedeau and Jack Friedman, both men with many years of experience in the cleaning business.

Bill Adams, formerly with Henry Doelger Builder, Inc., will open his own real estate office in Skyline Plaza. Mr. Adams has a large following, developed over many years in the real estate business.

The Center will offer further services to residents of the area through its own modern and convenient Medical - Dental building.

Skyline Plaza, while built to the plan of an "L", will have an inside mall off the Food Center. Many of its stores will have entrances from this mall.

The new shopping center will be open two nights a week; Mondays and Thursdays, in contrast to Westlake Shopping Center's Wednesday and Fridays. It has its own Merchants Association; Al Fambrini is president, Mrs. Don Goldman is secretary and Ray Forcina is treasurer.

ARTIST'S conception shows layout of Skyline Plaza Shopping Center which is set to open by the last of April, according to Henry Doelger Co., builders of the $10 million project. The center will eventually house 20 stores, comprising 85,000 square feet of selling space complete on one 10-acre site. Principal unit of the center will be the Skyline Plaza Market, owned by Vincent Nevolo. The center is located at the corner of Skyline and Westmoor boulevards.

A public dinner featuring a talk by Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson will be sponsored by the Shoreline Advisory Council of Half Moon Bay on April 26 at the Miramar Hotel there, according to E. A. Holgerson, chairman.

The dinner is being held as a public service to citizens of San Mateo County and the general Bay area, Holgerson said.

Anderson will speak on the California State Beaches and Parks program with particular regard to the program in San Mateo County.

In a letter to the City Council here, Holgerson wrote:

"We feel this is a program of growing importance to all of us because of the needs for expanding our recreational facilities to meet the demands of a spiraling population growth and our mushrooming community development."

The letter also asked that the council lend its name as a sponsor to the project and that a resolution or proclamation be issued in support of it.

Bay Area Science Fair Entry List Closes; 350 Projects To Be Shown

More than 350 scientific projects by high school students of twelve counties have been entered in the eighth annual Bay Area Science Fair, and the entry list is now closed, it was announced.

The fair will run April 8 to 12 at the Academy of Sciences in Golden Gate Park, with admission free.

Projects will be installed Tuesday and Wednesday, April 4 and 5, and judging will take place at a closed session Thursday. Award presentation ceremonies will be held Friday evening. The fair will open to the public Saturday. Hours will be 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. through the following Wednesday.

Martinus Van Waynen, Berkeley High School instructor and executive director of the fair, said the entries indicate research and originality in many phases of biology and physics.

Judging will be by a board of scientists from industries and college faculties. Officiating at the awards program will be Dr. Earl S. Herald, curator of Steinhart Aquarium and known to TV viewers as program host for "Science in Action."

Awards this year have been expanded to include a trip to London to attend an international youth science conference, followed by a tour of western Europe.

College Of San Mateo Board Gives Annual Program Review

"The most important thing we do at College of San Mateo is teach." With this statement, Superintendent Julio L. Bortolazzo introduced the annual review of the instructional program at the recent meeting of the board of trustees.

In a resume of instructional development, Director of Instruction Philip C. Garlington noted the work of the College curriculum committee in scanning applications for courses.

"With the use of IBM equipment," said Garlinton, "we can obtain new and valuable information to help us. We can predict overloads and drop-out rate, for example. We are, of course, striving for optimum class size."

Roland Abercrombie, chairman of the business division, described his course area as "fully matured." The business chairman stated that "while new courses are always more exciting, our main work is in providing new sections of the major subjects." Abercrombie briefly reviewed the data processing committee work and summarized the new legislative proposals regarding the real estate program.

For the fine arts division, chairman Jack Daniels reviewed the consolidation of the music, art, and drama departments into a single division with the emphasis on coordination of cultural offerings. The chairman indicated that close liaison is maintained with colleges and universities in addition to the professional schools. Strong professional, as well as academic, appreciation is stressed throughout the division.

For the largest of the instructional divisions, language arts, chairman Stanley L. Sharp, revised briefly the development of the reading program and of the language laboratory. Dr. Sharp stated that the College of San Mateo program, for many years the prototype of language listening emphasis, would regain leadership with the addition of facilities on the College Heights campus. The present 72 listening stations will be increased, with the possibility of over 200 listening installations for a broad variety of subjects.

"The emphasis in the life science division is on the addition of strong teachers," stated chairman Samuel Elkins. The division head reviewed personnel changes in the last year, giving examples of strengthening specialized fields. Elkins also stressed that complete review of course content and organization nad taken place.

Mathematics, engineering, and architecture developments were reported by chairman Fridtjof Paulsen. He noted the board testing program used in mathematics for the students' step-by-step progression through the sequence of courses. Paulsen emphasized the necessity of having instructors teach "across the board," covering the whole range of offerings.

In response to questions, chairman Paulsen indicated division awareness of new developments in the teaching of mathematics and advance preparation to meet change. As an addition to the mathematics-engineering report, instructor Roy Holmgren briefly described the hyperbolic parabaloid roof structure, a main architectural feature of the College Heights campus. Using several of the many models he has made, Holmgren quickly reviewed the development of the form.

For physical science, chairman James Ice noted that "We are doing our best to keep pace." Using examples from the chemistry area, Ice described the curricular review and specialization in sections that have been used. The chairman also reported the professional activities of staff members and participation in National Science Foundation awards.

Acting chairman of the social science division for 1960-61 is Dr. Rudolph Lapp while Dr. David Rempel is on sabbatical leave. Dr. Lapp indicated the need for staff strengthening in several areas, including geography and history of Africa and the Middle East. Lapp also noted that the class size in social science is the largest in all the divisions. He commented also on the Board policy on presentation of controversial issues, expressing the division's enthusiasm for the statement.

In the rapidly expanding area of technician program development, Dr. Jacob Wiens stressed that "Our teachers must be able to do what they teach." The chairman also reported that a recent study shows that one-fourth of all the engineering work in California is done by technicians. Wiens also reviewed course offerings in aeronautics, electronics, machine shop, physics, and technical drafting, with the programs leading directly to employment.

Bernard C. Gjerdrum, coordinator of vocational and industrial education, presented a summary of population trends, employment opportunities, and plans for expansion of programs to meet increasing demands. "We work closely with people in the field," stated Gjerdrum, "and know that other programs will be coming." The work of the many vocational advisory committees was cited as the most effective method of analyzing present programs and future curricular, facility, and equipment needs.

In the final report, Mrs. Mary Lou Faught reviewed the recent changes in library services and methods, plus additions in materials. "We are moving well toward the instructional materials concept," Mrs. Faught stated, "and in the College Heights facility will consolidate all book and non-book materials in the campus center. A 2400 book increase per year was reported, with the present collection of over 30,000 volumes.

County Civic Man Placed In Charge Of Fair Exhibits

John J. Canevari, past president of the Manufacturers Association of San Mateo County and a prominent San Mateo County civic leader, will be in charge of industrial and commercial exhibits at the 1961 San Mateo County Fair and Fiesta, it was announced recently.

In announcing Canevari's appointment to the Fair and Fiesta staff position, Manager William M. Wilson pointed out that plans are already being made to handle a record number of industrial and commercial exhibitors at the annual event scheduled for August 4 through 12.

Canevari, former county grand jury foreman, recently retired from Standard Oil Co. He served the Fair organization last year for the first time.

Robert Eskew's . . . WORDS TO READ BY

Don't look now but this could be the start of something mad.

It wasn't my idea so don't go getting the notion that I'm one of those pushy journalism grads who figures the world just can't wait for every word he's got to write.

I'm not in the least pushy or shovy or anything like that. In fact I'm not even a journalism grad. I'm just an ex-copy boy who made good and sometimes wonders after eight years why he didn't have enough sense to stay a copy boy.

Occasional defections such as loitering about the classified gals' desk or whistling in the city room, which would trigger the fuming wrath and scorn of every briny newsman from tube to teletype and back again were almost preferable to:

1—City Council meetings.
2—Ever-changing police codes.
3—City Council meetings.
4—Whist luncheons.
5—City Council meetings.
6—Merchant festivals.
7—City Council meetings.
8—Whist dinners.
9—And City Council meetings.

So far though I've thoroughly enjoyed the council meetings here because they're so packed full of juicy freeway hassles. And there's nothing I like better than a juicy freeway hassle—especially when I don't understand it—unless it's a juicy garbage hassle because garbage is really difficult to understand and I'm really happiest when I'm in a dense fog, particularly when it comes to garbage. And then there's sewers, but then we'd better not get into them because they're usually pretty deep and plenty messy, if you know what I mean.

So we'll get back to why I'm writing this column. Like I said, I'm really a gentle, retiring chap, quite content with my warm cubicle, small window, typewriter and head set through which I can demand all sorts of ticklish answers to precarious questions about nitro glycerin issues from behind a locked door. I'm also very brave.

But anyway, my boss of four weeks says to me the other day: "Eskew, I'm going to give you that really big break. I'm going to make a columnist out of you."

I just grinned back at him kind of silly and said, "Look, you're a tremendously funny guy, boss, but like already I'm late for the City Council meeting and besides, I haven't even learned how to play whist yet. Let's not rush things. You got a newspaper to think of, you know. No sense going off half cocked and asking for it now is there? Hah."

"Sorry, Eskew, but my mind's made up. You're going to be a columnist."

I'm still thinking like maybe I didn't hear so good. When you come to columnists, you know, you come to fellows like Caen and Delaplane and McCabe and Pegler and Pearson and Coates. And when you come that far, you couldn't even pick me up with radar back there in cubsville.

But who argues with the boss, at least not after only four weeks. You're really kind of grateful he even knows your name. So screw up your face and try uncrossing your eyes and bravely reply, "So what you want I should write about?"

"I want something dynamic," he intoned. "Something with zip and zoom. Something with the stamp of your entire personality on it."

It sounded a little like he wanted me to leap from a sixth story window onto a piece of copy paper.I figured if I could live through that, I'd land a sponsor the second time around and sell out to television. I am also full of principle.

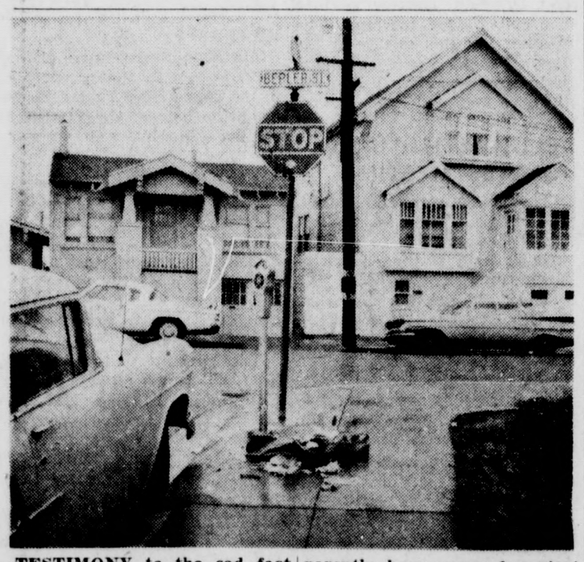
But instead, I agree to write this weekly opus which one of these days might turn into one of those things those other guys write that he is going to make me one of (you can see how far I've got to go, whew!).

I call it "Words to Read By" because if you ever stumble onto it, it's a fair cinch you're going to be reading and because I can't afford your light bill, the least I can do is give you something to read by.

If you're game to go along, I think we can have a few kicks here and there. Who knows, we might even learn whist together or get up a box-lunch-city-council-party and imitate a freeway protest or a garbage hassle during oral communications.

We'll try for a bit of thought, a touch of humor, some of you and less of me and let you be the judge and jury.

In the meantime, court is hereby in session.



TESTIMONY to the sad fact that the city is not as neat and tidy as it might be was this unsightly scene Friday at the corner of Bepler and Mission Circle right outside the entrance to the Post Office. A paper bag of garbage had apparently been propped against the parking meter the night before and the rain and wind Friday had finally caused it to burst and spread itself over the sidewalk. The mess remained untended all day.

—Staff Photo

CLOSEUP of the broken bag of garbage reveals old chicken bones, tin cans, cigarette butts and a multitude of other waste and trash materials purposely dumped on a city street by irresponsible parties. The mess was first spotted Friday morning by a reporter. These photos were taken late Friday afternoon. The location is a scant two blocks away from City Hall, yet apparently the garbage was never reported.

Local Ministers Plan Good Friday Services

Traditional noon-day Good Friday services, sponsored by the Daly City Ministerial Association, will be held in two locations for the convenience of merchants, shoppers, employees, and other prospective worshippers.

Duplicate one-hour services, from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., will be held at the Vista Grande Christian Church, at 101 Vista Grande avenue, Daly City, and the Westlake Community Baptist Church, corner of Southgate and Elmwood drive, in Westlake. Each service will feature the singing of hymns, scripture, and short meditations —all based on the traditional "Seven Last Words of Christ."

Five different ministers will take part in each location, with the host pastor in each case presiding. At the Westlake Community Baptist Church, Host-Pastor Lynn Hodges will preside, with short devotional messages by Pastor Donald Sheley of the Calvary Cross Church; Pastor Harold Thompson of the Wesley Methodist Church; Pastor Vernon Thomas of the Broadmoor Church of the Nazarene; and Pastor Herbert Tweedie of Broadmoor Presbyterian Church.

The same order of service will be conducted at the Vista Grande Christian Church, with Host-Pastor Hillis Davidson presiding, and the short devotional messages by Pastor Thomas Whelpley of Grace Presbyterian Church; Pastor Berger Thorness of the Assembly of God Church; Pastor Charles Archer of First Baptist Church; and Pastor Clark Robb of Seacliff Community Church.

The Rev. Mr. Robb, president of the Ministerial Association, emphasized that the service is only one hour in length, instead of a traditional three-hour service. It was the home of the ministerial group that the shorter services would make it possible for a greater number of people, including employed persons as well as housewives, to attend most of the service.

This Good Friday service is another of the cooperative ventures sponsored by the churches of the Ministerial Association Community-wide observance of Thanksgiving, World Day of Prayer, and Brotherhood Week have already met with most encouraging results. And the ministers are determined to cooperate in a community-wide witness whenever it is to the advantage of the community and the cooperating churches to do so.

Church Tells Easter Plan Of Special Music

Special music of exceptional quality and variety will feature Easter Weekend services at Good News Chapel, 215 West Orange avenue, South San Francisco.

Rev. Donald P. Wertz, pastor of this young and fast-growing church, announces that Good Friday services, March 31, will open with Communion at 7:30 p.m. This will be followed by a program of organ, piano and vocal music by the Rev. and Mrs. John C. Jennison of San Francisco. Completing the Good Friday service will be a sermon by Pastor Wertz on "A Place Called Calvary."

On Easter Sunday, Sunday School will be held as usual commencing at 9:45 a.m. and this will be the final day in an "Accept the Challenge" contest which has been running for several weeks. Awards will be presented to the winning class and to the individual who has brought in the most new members. Interest in this competition has been high, with constantly swelling attendance.

There will be special Easter music at the morning worship service, beginning at 11:00 a.m., and Pastor Wertz will speak on "Reserved for Cross Bearers."

At the evening service, at 7 p.m., will come a high-light in the presentation of a sacred concert by the 35-voice Renanah Choir of Simpson Bible College in San Francisco. Featured with the choir, as director and baritone soloists, will be Russell J. Marshall, head of Fine Arts at the college. The concert will include choral numbers, hymn arrangements, and spirituals. Various smaller ensembles, including the Simpsonaires Quartet, Trumpet Trio, Simpson Sextet, and Radio Trio will also be presented.

Westmoor High was represented at the California Industrial Education meeting held in Fresno earlier this month by teachers, George Simon, George Chrestionson, Dominick Polillo, and Lawrence Carlson.

SACRED Easter music will be sung by the 37-voice Renanah Choir of Simpson Bible College of San Francisco at the Easter Sunday evening services at Good News Chapel, 215 W. Orange avenue, in South San Francisco. Russell J. Marshall, head of fine arts at the college will be featured as director and baritone soloist.

Sunrise Service For Easter Rites At Mt. Davidson

Many Daly City residents will make their annual pilgrimage up Mount Davidson Sunday for the traditional Easter Sunrise Service at 5:52 a.m.

Children will come clutching fuzzy Easter bunnies or colored eggs they spied as they were leaving the house.

Easter bonnets and white gloves will give way to scarves and mittens to keep off the early morning chill.

Young and old alike will come to watch the sun burst over the horizon and to hear the reassuring message of their faith—Christ is Risen.

The Rev. Ernest Stillwell Heeren, pastor of First Congregational Church, will deliver the sermon, "What I Saw on Easter Morning." Special Easter music will be supplied by the Renanah Choir of Simpson Bible College and the San Francisco Municipal Band.

The entire service will be broadcast live over radio station KYA.

Special buses and streetcars will be run to accommodate the crowds. Take any bus that connects with the No. 10.

Temple Judea Will Hold Early Service Friday For Passover

An early Service will be held at Temple Judea, 95 South Mayfair avenue in Daly City on this Friday evening at 5:30 p.m. Rabbi Shapiro and Cantor Wachter will conduct the Service that will be an introduction to the Passover Festival which begins on sundown of the same evening.

The Festival of Freedom commemorates the exodus of the Israelites from ancient Egypt. It is related in the Biblical Book of Exodus.

The most singular feature of Passover Festival which is observed for a full week, is the home worship service known as the "Seder." The entire meal and ritual symbolizes in dramatic form the deliverance from slavery to freedom.

On Passover, many prayers are recited in regard to freedom. The following is one typical of the service recited by Reform Jews: "May we be imbued with a deep sense of our duty as free men; when we gather in our homes in happy family reunion, may we be mindful of those who still dwell in the house of bondage and eat the bread of affliction."

On Wednesday, March 29, 8 p.m., at the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue in Westlake, the Men's Club will hold a general meeting at which time business of the group will be on the agenda and plans for future events will be discussed. Following this, the sound movie "Memo to Eichmann" will be shown. All members and friends of the Men's Club are invited to attend.

Temple Judea Sisterhood announces that reservations are being taken for the Donor Luncheon to be held on Wednesday, May 3, 12 noon at the Fairmont Hotel. Mrs. Myron Smith, chairman, requests all members and friends of the Sisterhood to phone PL 5-5037 or the Temple Office, PL 5-6362 for reservations and information.

Holy Week At Hope Lutheran

Members of Hope Lutheran Church welcome their friends in this community to join them in any or all of the special services being conducted this week. The pastor, the Rev. Louis C. Marting, will officiate at all services. The church is located on San Fernando Way, just west of Junipero Serra boulevard in St. Francis Heights.

Holy Thursday the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated beginning at 7:30 p.m. This commemorates the institution of the Lord's Supper on the evening before his crucifixion.

On Good Friday, a noonday service will be held at the church beginning at 1 p.m. Brief meditations on the seven last statements of Christ from the cross will be the focus of the worship.

Good Friday evening, at 8 p.m., the traditional service of Tenebrae will again be conducted. The ancient service begins in subdued light, and ends with the church in total darkness. Twelve candles on the altar represent the twelve disciples.

With appropriate penitential Scripture readings and Lenten music, the candles are extinguished one by one, until the one candle, representing Christ, alone remains lit on the alter. This candle is then carried out of the church, symbolizing the burial of Christ, and is returned to the altar to symbolize the coming resurrections. All choirs will participate in this especially moving worship service. Hope Church invites its friends and neighbors to join them for these special services.

Bethel Lutheran Tells Schedule Of Services For Easter Holidays

On Good Friday, two services will be conducted at Bethel Lutheran Church, 2525 Alemany boulevard. The first service will begin at 1 p.m., with the children of the Sunday school participating. The junior choir, under the direction of Miss Gladys Schultz, will sing. Miss Heidi Kaufmann will serve as organist. The second service will be held at 8 p.m. The Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will conduct both services.

The Festival of Easter will be observed on Sunday at 8 a.m., and 10:45 a.m. Mrs. Willis Bredehoft, the organist, will render special Easter music. The senior and junior choirs will sing in the second service. The Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will preach at both services on the subject: "The Empty Tomb." Sunday School and Bible Classes will be held at 9:30 a.m.

St. Elizabeth Guild To Hold Card Party

The Reverend Frank Frese, Lutheran Chaplain at the Veterans Hospitals in the Bay Area, will be the speaker at the 12th annual Easter Sunrise Service in the El Rancho Drive-In Theater off the El Camino Real near Junipero Serra boulevard in South San Francisco.

The Lutheran Inter-Church Council will again sponsor this service, which will start promptly at 6:15 a.m., regardless of the weather.

The Drive-In Theater's beautiful setting and the fact that the worshippers may experience a sunrise service while remaining comfortably seated in their automobile has made this service increasingly more popular each year.

Chaplain Frese of Burlingame is well known for his lectures on the philosophy of Communism as it relates to the Church and to the American system of government.

Special Easter music will be rendered by the Inter-Church Choir. The entire community is invited to participate in this service.

The setting for passages from God's Word and hymns will be based on the Cross of Christ, His suffering and death, His resurrection and exaltation, His atonement, and adoration of Christ.

Mothers of St. Ignatius High School students will unveil a tapestry of fashions on the "Hilltop" this year when "Oriental Enchantment" will be the theme for 10th annual luncheon-fashion show in Phelan Hall at the University of San Francisco campus on April 22.

The subtle allure of the Far East will be captured in the decor, and fashions with the chic flair of Ransohoffs will be modeled by the mothers.

The popularity of this annual luncheon is largely due to the work of the various committees led by Fr. Donald O'Gara, S.J., honorary chairman, assisted by Mrs. Wm. Basso, chairman and Mrs. Jack Madden, co-chairman.

All proceeds will be contributed to the building and scholarships funds of the school.

Jehovah's Witnesses Christ Memorial Is Set For Thursday

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Daly City Congregation will celebrate the Memorial of Christ's death tomorrow at 8 p.m., according to Harold E. Casperson, presiding minister of the local congregation.

"March 30 this year corresponds with Nisan 14 of the calendar used by the Jewish nation in Jesus' day," Mr. Casperson explained. "For that reason it is celebrated by Jehovah's Witnesses once each year on that anniversary date in all 21,000 congregations world wide."

The Memorial service will be conducted by James L. Turpin, 352 Lakeshire drive, minister from the local congregation.

A week of special activity is planned by the Daly City Congregation in connection with the Memorial Celebration. A house-to-house visitation program has been outlined for all in the congregation.

A Bible lecture will be given on Sunday, April 2, at 4 p.m. Mr. Casperson will be the speaker.

Jewish Passover Begins Friday; Holiday Will Last For One Week

by Rabbi Solomon A. Shore
Congregation B'nai Israel

The Jewish Passover will be ushered in officially Friday evening at sundown and will be celebrated all through the week.

The observance calls for the elimination from the ordinary diet of many items of food ordinarily eaten, especially bread. Even the dishes have to be either new ones or dishes used for Passover only.

The house gets the most thorough cleaning in order to make sure that no chometz (leavened food) is left anywhere. The precepts of the Jewish Passover are very exact and numerous. Many people consult the rabbi on the laws and customs of this particular holiday.

The first two evenings are the most colorful and the most important of the holiday. The evening meals during these two evenings are carried out in the form of a regular banquet, interspersed with prayers and historical comments by the head of the group. The orderly procedure of the Seder (evening meal) is usually found in the Hagadah (special booklet for Passover). Whole families and larger groups get together for this occasion.

Religious services are held mornings and evenings all week long with sermons explaining the full meaning of the holiday. All through the ages, our people would find in the celebration of the Passover a ray of hope for a better life all the oppressed in the world. Passover usually comes at the beginning of spring—when Man's hopes and spirits are high.

Should Be One World At A Time According To Presbyterian Pastor

Belief in immortality is like walking on stepping - stones across a river, so heavily hung with mist that one cannot see the other bank. We take one step on the first stone and stop, as if that is as far as we go. Then as the mist rises, we see the next stepping stone ahead. We take another step and that too seems to be as far as we go. This goes on day after day, and year after year, and then at long last, the stepping stones of faith are swallowed up in fact.

If we would understand immortality, we must not be impatient. One stepping stone at a time is about all a man can manage. One world at a time is enough for anyone. Indeed there is only one world. Jesus tells us not to be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Eternal life begins here and now. It is not some far away utopia. Death is but a brief interuption. When we see life as Jesus saw life, we no longer gaze into a meaningless grave: We look beyond the tomb, and recall the comforting words of our Lord, "In my Father's House are many rooms . . . I go to prepare a place for you."

Ponce de Leon was lured to the Western world in search of the fountain of eternal youth. Suppose the Spaniard had found such a fountain, the waters of which would make a man impervious to age and death. Would that make for eternal life in any desirable sense? How long would the activities we engage in here continue to be satisfying? How many centuries would we care to go on making money? How long would we be interested in fashionable women and vivacious men? When would the things that please men here and fill their thoughts begin to pall? Is survival a matter of quantity rather than quality? Let us take life in its stride—one step at a time and one world at a time.

Catholic Youth Enter Poem, Essay Contest; Judging Is Now On

Final judging is taking place in the Catholic Daughters of America National Creative Poetry Contest, with a Catholic theme, sponsored locally by Court St. Mary No. 1155, of Daly City. Participating are six local and San Francisco Catholic Grammar Schools and three Catholic High Schools, also of San Francisco, grades 4 through 12.

Winning papers will be sent to Mrs. Nelsie DeSousa of Yuba City, State Chairman of Education, for statewide competition, according to Mrs. James O'Reilly, chairman of this phase of the C.D.A. Education program for Court St. Mary.

Also being sponsored by the Catholic Daughters is a State Essay Contest on the subject of Communism, this being open to the 8th grade students in the Roman Catholic Schools.

Court St. Mary is also sponsoring this Essay Contest locally and the winning paper will be forwarded on to state competition.

State winners will be announced at the State Conference, which takes place at Pasadena, on May 3rd.

Local awards will be given by Court St. Mary to top winners in both contests and will be announced by Mrs. O'Reilly at the next business meeting on April 6.

Easter Services Set For Hope Lutheran

The Feast of the Resurrection of Christ will be celebrated at Hope Lutheran Church, on San Fernando Way, west of Junipero Serra boulevard, Daly City, in two identical services at 8:30 and 11 a.m. The sermon in both services will be delivered by the Pastor, the Rev. Louis C. Marting.

After the penitential mood of the Lenten Season, the aisle candleabra, and the hundreds of lilies contribute to make this a most festive and meaningful occasion to the Christian worshipper.

The senior choir, junior choir, and the girls' choir will combine their efforts of praise in appropriate Easter music. Many of the members of the choir will also participate in the Easter Sunrise Service at the El Rancho Drive-In Theater at 6:15 a.m. on Easter morning. The speaker for this service is the Rev. Frank Frese, chaplain serving veterans' insitutions in the Bay Area.

Thomas will bring the Easter Message on the theme: "After the Darkness — the Dawn."

At the 7 p.m. evening service the film, "The Martyred Men" will be shown. This film is 30 minutes in length and answers the question, "Did five missionaries die in vain as they attempted to reach the pagan Auca Indians of the Ecuadorian jungles?"

The Broadmoor Church of the Nazarene will also cooperate in the Union Good Friday Service to be held at the Westlake Baptist Church.

Jay Vee Stores Will Move Executive Office To S.S.F.

Jay Vee Stores of California, Inc., this week announced it will move its executive and buying offices and distribution center from San Francisco to Utah Construction & Mining Company's South San Francisco Industrial Park.

Announcement of the relocation plans was made by J. V. Hopkins, president of the retail clothing firm he and his son in law, Frank Robichaud, founded in San Francisco 23 years ago.

He said the new $235,000 glass and concrete structure, designed by Simpson, Stratta and Associates, San Francisco architects and engineers, will replace 'outgrown quarters at 1171 Mission Street, San Francisco.

The 26,300 square foot facility at 330 Corey Way, South San Francisco, now being built for Utah Construction & Mining Company by Johnson and Mape Construction Company of Menlo Park, is scheduled to be in operation June 1. Leasing arrangements were completed by Industrial Services of 3 Post Street, San Francisco.

Relocation of Jay Vee's headquarters and major warehousing facilities will mark another milestone in the continuing growth of the company which was started on a shoestring in December, 1938, and built into the largest chain store operation based in San Francisco today.

Hopkins and Robichaud put up $400 capital and opened their first store in San Francisco's Marina District with a few armloads of merchandise, some homemade fixtures and a muffin tin for a cash register.

"Small as this store was, it was necessary to fill the shelves with empty boxes in order to give at least a semblance of stock," Robichard recalled. "We were able to carry most of the stock to the Marina with a couple of trips by street car."

The operation was started as and remains a family enterprise.

For the first two years, Robichaud operated the small Marina store with the assistance his wife; his mother in law, Mrs. Hopkins, and his sister in law, Miss Peggy Hopkins.

"We all lived on what today would be considered coolie wages, Robichaud said. "As a matter of fact, that is what they were considered then."

In 1940, Hopkins left his position as assistant to the president of O'Connor Moffitt Company, now Macy's and opened a store in Vallejo. As business picked up, additional stores were opened and in 1947 Jay Vee was incorporated with Hopkins as president, Robichaud as vice president and general manager and Miss Hopkins as secretary treasurer.

Today, the company operates 35 store employing 250 people throughout Northern California.

Stock records are kept on IBM equipment, merchandise is sped by truck from New York suppliers directly to the warehouse here and during 1961, the company's business volume is expected to exceed $5,000,000.

Hopkins said Jay Vee will open two new stores this year, one in Sacramento and the other in Concord, and plans to open 25 more during the next 10 to 15 years.

"Our new office and warehousing facilities in Utah Construction & Mining Company's Industrial Park will incorporate the latest word in mechandise handling equipment and techniques and are designed to accommodate our continuing growth," Robichaud said.

Alexander Cordero Gets PFC Stripe

Alexander Cordero, 19, son of Mrs. Mary Cordero, Daly City, recently was promoted to private first class in Germany, where he is a member of the 37th Artillery.

A wireman in the artillery's Headquarters Battery in Schwabisch Hall, he entered the Army in June 1960 and arrived overseas the following December.

Cordero is a 1959 graduate of Polytechnic High School and attended City College of San Francisco.

PRE-SCOUT-O-RAMA LUNCH IS TODAY

WORKMEN pour concrete into forms of the soon-to-be-completed Brotherhood Way pedestrian overpass. The overpass will serve as a lifeline between Parkmerced and Thomas More Way where St. Thomas More School and Church are located. H. H. Brotherhood Overpass Soon To Be Completed

By Alice Bourrillion Dils

"It should be ready in another month," said H. H. Beneke, liaison engineer at City Hall, referring to the pedestrian overpass presently under construction across Brotherhood Way.

The overpass will serve initially as a lifeline between Parkmerced and Thomas More Way, where St. Thomas More School and Church are located

The completion of the overpass is eagerly awaited by parents of elementary school children, as its use will obviate the hazards of crossing a heavily trafficked boulevard.

As its name connotes, Brotherhood Way is the future site of a Greek Orthodox Church, a Christian Science Church, a Masonic Temple and a Temple of Congregation Judeah.

Paving of the overpass progressed with one worker levelling the concrete with a shovel as it was poured from a wide-mouthed sack, appended to a vast concrete container. While others wielded vibrating pipes—likened to a "cake mixer" by one workman—to agitate it below surface level and fill in invisible cracks.

The concrete mixer's truck driver watched the photographer and cracked, "Shall I smile now?", promptly ducking behind the vat.

The men's cheerful attitude in general, under the efficient direction of their foreman, G. Andersen of 1429 - 14th avenue, epitomized Theodore Roosevelt's philosophy that:

"Far and away the best prize life offers is the chance to work at work worth doing."

Hunters Point, San Francisco (originally named La Punta de Concha or Seashell Point), was first visited by Juan Bautista Aguirre, a mate aboard the Spanish brig San Carlos which, in 1775, was the first ship to enter the Golden Gate, according to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Jeff Drops Games To Sacred Heart, Menlo

The Irish from Sacred Heart edged the Jeffersonian nine by a margin of 3-2 in their last week's fray.

Little happened until the fourth frame when Sacred Heart picked up one run on a hit and two Indian miscues.

The Indians fired up next with George Claus grounding sharply to third. Then Rod Stoller drew a charity pass. With one on and one down, Mike Rovai unloaded a deep drive to left field for a round trip, twisting the score to 2 to 1 in favor of Jeff.

A change in pitchers in the fifth proved to be fatal to the Indians however as they went the remainder of the game without a tally. Sacred Heart managed to collect a pair of runs in the sixth on two errors, a walk and a one-bagger.

Winning pitcher was Zimmerman; loser was Claus.

In its tourney opener, Jeff dropped the game to Menlo-Atherton, 4 to 3, in the ninth frame. Menlo opened the scoring early in the second with three runs on four hits and one Indian error. In the same inning Rovai of Jeff pounded out a stand-up double down the left field line but was left hanging as the side was retired.

In the fourth, Tony Montalbo snagged a single, then stole second to score a few minutes later on George Claus' single.

Johnny Souza, Indian catcher, collected his first hit of the day and first RBI by scoring Claus from second on a single. Claus tied the game up at 3-3 in the sixth. He walked, took second on a passed ball, advanced to third on a wild pitch and then scored on another wild pitch.

The Bears scored in the top of the ninth after the lead off man drew a charity pass, then scored on a pair of singles for the winning tally.

Jeff Bows 5-2 To Sequoia Nine

In one of their latest tilts the Jefferson High horsehiders bowed to a hard-hitting Sequoia nine, 5-2.

The first inning proved to be the only Indian scoring opportunity of the day. Lead-off man, Tom McEntee drew a charity pass and moved to second on Bobby With's sacrifice. McEntee then stole third by catching the pitcher napping.

Jack Fuertes lined a single into left field, scoring McEntee for the first Indian tally. Later in the first frame little George Claus with his bat drove in Fuertes, making the score 2-0 after half an inning of play.

Sequoia tallied first in the second frame on a pair of Indian miscues. In the Sequoian half of the third they picked up three runs on four hits and an error, including a two-run homer by Schlenker.

Jeff Hi Indians Take Giants 9-0

Jefferson Indians blanked the Giants of Redwood High School 9 to 0 last week behind 2 hit pitching of Stan Montalbo. Montalbo went the entire game, giving up 2 hits and no walks, only one man reached second base, two men only reached first base. Montalbo was in command the whole game with a no-hitter going until the fifth inning when the Giants got their first hit.

George Claus was the stand out player for Jeff with 4 RBI's. He collected one single and two doubles plus playing outstanding defensive game at third base.

Rams Rebound, Defeat Tigers During Third Practice Meet

Snapping out a two meet losing streak the Rams of Westmoor defeated Terra Nova's Tigers in a practice meet at Westmoor last week.

Westmoor won the varsity meet by a score of 93-18, taking every first place. The Rams also made complete 1-2-3 sweeps in the 440, 180 low hurdles and shot put.

High point men for the varsity were Walt Prouty and Jim Lucke, both scoring 13 points. Lucke took firsts in the high hurdles and high jump and a second in the low hurdles, while Prouty racked up "five pointers" in the low hurdles and broad jump. His other three points came from a second behind Pete de Garmo in the 100 yard dash. Pete also won the 220.

As usual, Dennis Chase came through with a first in the pole vault by clearing the cross bar at 11 feet 10 inches. Gene Luttringer in his first year out for track, topped Terra Nova's vaulters to take second.

Westmoor's B's did not have the advantage of a safe point margin to enable them to relax. Tension mounted right down to the last event when the Rams edged out their opponents 57-56.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Mike Pinelli of Westmoor. Pedrini took first in the broad jump and 120 in the low hurdles. Mike's winning jump of 20' 1" was three inches better than the first place jump for Speedster Pinelli burned up the track with times of :7.4 and :14.8 in the 75 and 150 yard dashes respectively.

Making the victory complete, the Ram C's slid home with a safe 27 point margin separating them from the Terra Nova Tigers.

Riordan Wins Ball Game 3-2

Taking advantage of a good first inning, Riordan edged Westmoor 3-2 in a baseball game at Marchbanks Park recently.

Crusaders combined three hits, two of them doubles by Sobeck and Rivera, and a base on balls before Ram pitcher Barry Krohn could get anyone out. The resultant two runs were only the beginning of Krohn's troubles. Although they did not score, Krohn had to sweat it out with runners on first and third and two outs, but the third out came on a liner caught by Chris Hansen.

Riordan collected their third run in the third inning through a series of Westmoor errors, three to be exact.

Rams finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth. Terry Christman led off with a single, stole second, and went to third when Riordan catcher Madras' throw hit Terry's leg. He scored when leftfielder Bob Lazore dropped Steve Payette's pop up.

In the sixth inning, with the score 3-1 in favor of Riordan, Bill Hix was given first base on a catcher's interference call. Christman walked as did Rich Morales. Hix scored when

Frosh-Soph Team Wins 11-5 Opener

Jefferson Frosh-Soph baseball team opened its bid for a third straight championship by defeating San Mateo 11-5.

Carl Carpenter pitched 5 innings for the Indians, striking out 10 batters and allowing 3 hits. He was relieved by Prior Bailey, who shut out the Bearcats the last two innings.

The highlight of Jeff's offense was a fourth inning two run homer by Funga Fia. Other leading batters were Lary Keeling and Mike Morton, with 2 hits each.

Rams Score Win In Golf Match

The Westmoor Rams took a step further in the Peninsula League Golf Tournament as they crushed the San Mateo Bearcats by a score of 14½ to 6½.

Five 78's were scored on the Peninsula Golf and Country Club course, four of which were shot by Ram golfers. Shooting the lows for the day were, Bob Snyder, Marty Seelig, Mike Jermane, and Jim Fair for the Rams, and Roger Pearson for San Mateo.

Westmoor now has a record of two wins and no losses and will face the Capuchino Mustangs next.

Shot of the day was made by Westmoor's Mike Jermane when he hit the cup on the par three fifteenth hole. The ball did not go in, however, but Mike dropped the putt for a birdie two.

Ram's Seasonal Record Evened; 3 Wins, 3 Loss

Last Thursday, the Westmoor Ram's seasonal record was evened to 3 wins and 3 losses, via a 7-6, extra inning loss to Galileo High School of San Francisco.

The loss was a heartbreaker for Ram hurler Terry Christman, who apparently had the game wrapped up after a 5-run outburst in the sixth inning for Westmoor.

Going into their half of the sixth, the Rams trailed, three to one. Mike Daniels started the rally by gaining a free pass. Back-to-back singles by Steve Funai and Christman, loaded the bases; and set the stage for Rich Morales. The Ram shortstop blasted a triple to deep center, clearing the bases. Clean-up hitter Barry Krohn followed Morales with another triple, and then scored Westmoor's fifth run of the inning on Steve Payette's single to left.

Christman started the last of the seventh with a 6 to 3 lead, but singles by Galileo's Bob Datre and Satosay Sakamoto, followed by a triple by John Rudometken, narrowed the margin to 1 run. A perfect squeeze bunt by Dave Barne sent the game into extra innings.

Galileo won it in the ninth by taking advantage of a three-base error by rightfielder Daniels. The first run was knocked in by Doug Luskutoff, who lined a single past second.

Westmoor committed five errors afield, two of which were flies dropped in the outfield. Both errors on simple fly balls led to runs.

Pacifica Youth Ends Navy Recruit Training

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

PITCHING, VETS MAKING JEFF TEAM

Pitching plus experienced veterans will provide a strong contending baseball club at Jefferson High this season.

This season's pitching problem lies squarely on the shoulders of veterans Steve Montalbo, George Claus and last years' frosh-soph ace, Bob Miller. Thus far in the practice season all three hurlers have shown their superb skill on the mound.

Coach Steve Mezzera is counting heavily in his returning lettermen to start the ball rolling. Out of the starting nine, Mezzera has eight returning lettermen to fill the positions.

The returning men are, Claus-3b-p; Fuertes-cf-p; Kennedy-ss; McEntee-lf; Montalbo, J.-1b; Montalbo, S.-p; Souza-c; and Stoller-lf. The only junior to break into the starting lineup — so far, anyway — is second sacker Mike Rovai.

Of Rovai, the coach says, "Rovai is the best second baseman he has seen under his piloting."

Junior reserves Bob Brush, Rich Reitz, Al Caciedo, Don Luciano, and Darwin Hoahenn are Mazzera's safety valves.

Mazzera is making it plain he won't settle for a second place tie again. He wants the crown.

Mezzera plans to do it this way: with his pitchers in good shape, a good defensive club, along with a solid hitting attack, he feels he might cop the PL Crown from the favored Rams of Westmoor.

Chicago Speed Ace To Race All Comers

Chris Karamesines, Chicago speed ace, will put his national Mr. Eliminator Number Two title on the line and race all challengers April 9 at the Fremont raceway, Ron Lawrence, manager of the Fremont Drag Strip, announced this week.

Karamesines earned the title the hard way by being a constant winner in races all over the country, with low elapsed time and highest miles per hour.

In order to be eligible to challenge him, drivers must wheel fuel dragsters running in the eight-second bracket for elapsed time on the quarter mile.

Something About Sports

By JIM KALLENBACH

Jeff Hi managed to keep its frosh-soph baseball record when it scored its second successive win recently over its Peninsula League competitors by crushing Aragon 5-0 . . . The Daly City Recreation League is quietly but effectively getting started with a new season and it looks like a real good one, too . . . Rumors have it that the Daly City Drugs boys (juniors) and managed by George Benson look mighty good . . . So does Everett Heick's BYA team (also in the juniors) . . . Too early to tell about the midgets . . . The league begins sometime in early May . . . By the way, any of you dads who would like to do a little coachin' for the league, don't forget to show up at the April 6 managers meet at the War Memorial Building . . . What a whopping good time it must have been when the rec department held a night or so ago two all-star basketball games, one between the sixth and seventh graders and the other, between the eight graders and all the coaches . . . But back to baseball . . . Lagomarsino Realty is sponsoring a baseball benefit dance Saturday, April 15, at the Colma Community Hall from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Music by Jim Welsh. Dress is informal. They are requesting a five dollar donation per person! . . .

Here's the lineup on the Peninsula League's opener April 7 when the Westmoor baseballers meet Hillsdale at Hillsdale . . . Barry Krohn, who was PL athlete of the year last year, is back again this year, and is Coach Rod Losberger's choice at lead off pitcher . . . Behind the plate will be Steve Payette, a junior transfer from Lincoln . . . Steve Funai, up from the frosh-soph ranks, will be at second base . . . Bill Hix at third . . . Terry Christman will hold down first base . . . Rich Morales will play short stop again . . . Cornell Holmes will be in left field . . . Ron Townsend will be in right field . . . And Scott Schackelford, also up from the frosh-soph team will be at center.

And now for the batting order: Hix will lead off, followed by Christman, who will be followed by Morales, then Krohn, Holmes, Payette, Funai, Townsend, and last but not least, Schackelford.

These nine (and the subs too) will be defending the PL championship title won in 1960 with a 11-3 league record and a 20-8 record for the season . . . Five of the guys on the first string this year are veterans of first string from last year's ball club. They are Krohn, Hix, Morales, Holmes, and Christman . . . So far, Funai, also known in football circles, looks good and is one to watch this year . . . Got nothin' but praise from his coach . . .

There'll be no more frosh football per se, instead it will be a frosh-soph combination, so said the Board of Managers at their meeting last Thursday night . . . Those schools in the league which this edict will effect will be our own Jeff and Westmoor, South City, San Mateo, Mills Burlingame, Capuchino, and Hillsdale . . .

What with the renovation on Jeff High's gym to start this summer, Phys Ed classes come next fall will be located in the most unusual places! Basketball will be played at the War Memorial Center; the guys n' gals will still be able to make out like ducks in the pool, but imagine going to the cafeteria for a boxing or wrestling workout!!! . . . Yep, ya' read right. Cafeteria . . . Not only no gym, but no cafeteria at Jeff to brunch in. The cafeteria will be closed down and converted to handle the boxing and wrestling classes. A snackbar will act as cafeteria. Dist. Supt. Ed Morgan says the gym won't be in use for the year . . .

The present shower and locker rooms will be redone over into exercise rooms, and larger and more plentiful showers and lockers will be built underneath the main gym floor . . . Talkin' about making like a mole! . . . Ron Anguillo, he's on the Vince & Fred team in the Daly City-Colma Merchants Bowling League, who toss 'em down the alleys every Tuesday, has the right to go 'round with a big smile on his face. He has got himself a 702, which just happens to be high series in the 14-year history of the league . . . Vince & Fred's has still another season to brag. Their team also got a score of 3030, high team series in the history of the league.
